

Marlow's Cemetery Trustee's meeting

May 2013

The Cemetery Trustee's meeting for May 2013 was called to order at 4:0 PM with Gerry Plotts and Jan Lane absent.

Minutes were read by Mary Blank, Linda Russell and Roxanne MacConnell and accepted with changes.

Report of Cemeteries: Linda reported that in the Village Cemetery, Ella Nichols's stone is tilted. Mary said that Tony Davis, our Sexton has fixed one of the stones and this Ms Nichols's stone may be the one he fixed. The West Yard was checked within the last (2) two weeks and looked stable. No one had checked on Old Settlers.

Mary advised that the Check written to John Clegg had cleared. No comment or activity on the finance charges from his last bill.

Spring clean up is scheduled for May 13th Monday, at the Village Cemetery at 4:40 PM

Mary helped to locate the Downing Family gravesite at the Village Cemetery with Elizabeth Whitley and her Mother from Iowa. Mr. James Downing is Elizabeth's great great grandfather. Mary met Ms. Whitley and Mom at the cemetery.

Mary reported that the "Death Café" research will continue. No meetings had been scheduled between the April and May meeting.

Al Blank is making the frame for the Cemetery map and Tony Davis will help to attach to the plant shed in the Village Cemetery before Memorial Day festivities and the Hammond burial.

First mowing will be done on May 20th.

“Find a Grave” website. This is a nationwide website. Put in the name of a relative and the website tells you where the cemetery is that they are buried in.

With nothing further to discuss or report, the meeting was adjourned at 5:12 PM.
